Supplemental Figure 1. Scatter plots of differences in anterior chamber depth (ACD), axial length (AL), central subfield retinal thickness (CRT), subfoveal choroidal thickness (CT), and spherical equivalent (SE) between eyes with central serous chorioretinopathy and non-symptomatic fellow eyes in patients with acute symptoms ≤3 months in duration. Correlation coefficients (r) and P-values are shown.