Supplement figure 2: Flowchart summarizing the drop-outs as a result of applying the distinct in- and exclusion criteria. *) Number of eyes is higher than 2 times the number of patients because in in several instances only one eye of a patient was excluded. So this patient would remain study participant with his other eye being included into the analysis. #) In three eyes, both these exclusion criteria apply and therefore appear twice.