

Figure S3. Additional LBA modeling results. (A) Estimated decision boundary in the post-test session was higher than that in the pre-test session and was not specific to the trained direction. (B) No consistent changes of the start point between sessions. (C) Estimated deviation of the drift rate showed a specific enhancement in the trained direction. Error bars represent standard errors.