Figure 4. The left image is a patch from an input retina image. The image in the middle is its corresponding interpolation function (eq. 2). The right image shows the iterations of finding the centerline algorithm with initial points of iterations and resultant centerline points.