

Supplementary Figure 1. A case of a 73-year-old female who underwent lamellar corneal grafting using a preserved human cornea. (A) Photograph showing necrotizing scleritis after the previous pterygium surgery. Photographs (B) 1 day and (C) 1 month after surgery.