Supplementary Figure S8: Illustrative examples of personalized norms for 50-year olds with equal scanning radii in both eyes (top panel) and for 70-year olds with a radius difference of 50 μm. Our supplemental software allows the generation of such normative plots for any ages and scanning radius differences, based on the numerical values which we provide in a public repository.