

Supplementary Figure. Box-plots of the unbiased error for each subject. The boxes include the interquartile range, the whiskers extend to the 95% quantiles and the horizontal midline represents the median. The two horizontal black lines represent the spacing between locations of a 10-2 grid and of a 24-2 grid as a reference.