Supplementary Figure S1: Recording of mfPOP responses using a prototype OFA. Multifocal stimuli are presented dichoptically on liquid crystal displays (1) and reflected using cold-dichroic mirrors (2). Near-infrared LEDs (3) are used to illuminate the subject’s eyes and the pupillary response is monitored using two infrared video cameras.